GETTING THERE

Philadelphia is the second largest city on the East Coast and is conveniently located in the middle of the Northeast Corridor, 100 miles south of New York and 133 miles north of Washington, DC. It is easily accessed by car, by air, by train or by bus. The city is serviced by Philadelphia International Airport (PHL), located approximately seven miles from Center City. Taxi fare to and from the airport to Central Philadelphia is $28.50 (flat-rate) each way. Train fare (R1 Regional Line) to and from the airport to University City is $7.00 each way. Amtrak and Greyhound are also viable travel options for those visitors from within the Northeast Corridor.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Please be advised, Metrum Institute does not provide hotel accommodations for course participants. Philadelphia is a large metropolitan area that offers visitors many different lodging options.
